NORTHWESTERN ASKS
LOCAL TERMINALS

The Union Station Directors Meet to Consider the Proposition.

A meeting of the directors of the union station will be held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock to consider the application of the Mexico North Western railroad for terminal facilities at the union station. The Mexico North Western, the present terminus of which is at Juarez, plans to enter El Paso union station just as soon as the link between Madera and Pearson is completed. The matter of granting the application of the North Western will be a formal one probably the voting will be done by the resident members of the board by proxy. The members are J. E. Hurley, general manager of the eastern lines of the Santa Fe, president; H. J. Simmons, general manager of the Southwestern, vice president; C. R. Hudson, vice president of the Mexican National Railways of Mexico City; L. S. Thorn, general manager of the Texas & Pacific; W. W. Turney, of El Paso; W. A. Hawkins, of the firm of Hawkins & Franklin, general attorneys of the Southwestern, and G. S. Waid, superintendent of the El Paso division of the G. H. & S. A. Mr. Hurley and Mr. Hudson and probably Mr. Thorn will not be present.

S. P.'S NEW PLAN TO GET INTO GUADALAJARA
Mexico City, Mexico, June 24.—When the Southern Pacific tracks are completed to Guadalupe, the company will run its trains into the city of Guadalajara over the National Railway of Mexico. An agreement to this effect was reached today after a number of conferences between officials of both systems.

J. C. Stubbs, vice president of the S. P., left tonight for Chicago and El Paso. Randolph, vice president of the S. P., is in Mexico, left for Tucson, Arizona.

LIGHTER TRAINS ORDERED ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC
Southern Pacific train No. 9 will go west with not more than 10 cars hereafter on Mondays and Fridays. Orders have been issued to this effect by the superintendent of the Tucson division. Inasmuch as 12 cars is the limit of the train, the number from El Paso is limited to 10, the Douglas sleeper picked up at Benson and the Phoenix sleeper picked up at Maricopa making 12 cars.

SOUTHWESTERN TO RUN MANY FOURTH EXCURSIONS
The general passenger department of the Southwestern is busy making out schedules and rates for Fourth of July excursions between points in Arizona and from northern Mexico points. The inquiries and applications for excursions this year has been in excess of previous years. The Fourth this year will have a deeper meaning for Arizonians and the excursion parties will be the occasion for statewide jollifications in the near future.

TRAIN SERVICE ON TUCSON-NOGALES ROAD
Nogales, Ariz., June 24.—Trains are now running on the Tucson-Nogales railroad, newly completed. This will be a great convenience both in hours and fare to the two cities.

NEW SOUTHWESTERN RULING.
On the Southwestern, women passengers will not have to go through the smoking car when leaving the train hereafter. Orders have been issued to have the vestibule door between the chair car and the smoker opened at every station to obviate the necessity of traversing the length of the smoker through a vapor of smoke to leave the train.

NEW SHIP IN PACIFIC OCEAN.
The schedule and itinerary of the steamship "Luelia," of the Southern Pacific interests in Mexico, between Manzanillo and San Blas has been published by the company. The ship was put on to accommodate the mining men and others who are flocking to the west coasts of Mexico.

ABOUT RAILROAD PEOPLE.

H. Mebus, a brakeman on the G. H. at El Paso, has resigned. S. C. Gardner, assistant district superintendent of the Pullman company, returned Thursday morning from Chihuahua.

Frank C. Tays, car inspector for the Southern Pacific railway, arrived in the city this morning in his private car, Cypress. Frank Harkens, assistant storekeeper of the G. H. at El Paso, has returned from Oakland, Cal., accompanied by his little sister, Mabel Harkens, who will make her home in El Paso.

DETECTIVE AFTER MAN AT SAN ANTONIO
Believes Wendling in Monterey—Accused of the Louisville Murder.

San Antonio, Tex., June 24.—Instead of returning to Louisville, as was announced, detective chief Carney scoured the country about the city and said this afternoon he will leave tonight for Monterey, Mex., hot on the trail of Joseph Wendling, accused of killing 8 year old Alma Kellner, of Louisville. Carney's announcement that he would leave for Mexico tonight followed telegraphic communication with the police at Monterey. He declared he had evidence that Wendling was here on March 9, working in a department store and that Wendling applied at an employment office for a position on April 9th.
